

A VICTORIAN HALLOWEEN With Carol Weakman

DATE: October 29, 2011 / TIME: 4:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

WHERE: The Hower House, 60 Fir Hill, Akron, Ohio

COST: $30.00

(This cost will include a "Tea by Sarah" and a presentation by Carol Weakman, "The Turn of the Screw", based upon the novella by Henry James)

Please make checks payable to: Hower House Victorians and mailed to: Lucille Wingard, 903 Tollis Parkway, Broadview Heights, OH 44147 - Checks must be received by Friday, October 14th

Lucille Wingard, 903 Tollis Parkway, Broadview Heights, OH 44147
Ph: 440-237-1150 - email: lucillemarie@cox.net

Do ghosts really exist, or are they the product of some overactive imagination? Ms. Weakland enacts the tale of an untried governess that finds herself face to face with phantoms of evil who seek to control the seemingly angelic children in her charge. Can she save them, or will she be drawn into the depths of madness before the conclusion? Henry James leaves the answer entirely in the hands of his readers. Tonight - - you the audience will decide.

