

CYNTHIA LUNDEEN'S "MURDER IN THE MANSION"
2380 Overlook Road, Cleveland Heights, OH 44106
Saturday, June 26th / Time: 1:00 - 4:00
Cost: 20.00

"Murder in the Heights" - Cynthia's mansion was built in 1896, and was owned and built by John Hartness Brown. He was accused of murdering Mr. William Rice who was a well known local attorney. Mr. Rice was murdered in 1910, and even though John Brown was one of the major suspects, there were too many shady business dealings that had gone on between so many people, that the murder was never solved!! This will be an intriguing story and entire day, what a special day she has in store for us

We will be fortunate enough to hear the details of this Mystery and History of the mansion, we will then have a tour of downstairs a wonderful Tea and then a tour of Millinery Parlor (Many of her hats have been on Magazine Covers, Newspapers and TV shows.

Tickets are on a limited basis, so please don't hesitate to make your reservations, payment is due on June 1st. This will be such fun
