THE STORY

Girls Night follows five thirty and forty-something friends as they relive their past on a wild karaoke night out. They have been friends since their teens and have all been through their fair share of heartache and tragedy, joy and success. Together they remember their earlier years, celebrate their current lives and look to the future... all the while belting out their favourite girlie karaoke anthems such as I'm Every Woman, Say a Little Prayer, Dancing Queen etc. You'll recognise all of the characters in your own friends and will identify with many of the hilarious storylines. Here's a little extra insight into each of the five characters:

Carol: The original party animal - likes a drink or two, or twenty two! Married twice already and still looking...

Kate: Carol's younger sister is a Teacher. Married to Mr Perfect when she was 22, boring but very handy for driving.

Liza: Married rich - says he's a pig but he's not. Three kids, nice big house and lunches in Pizza Express every other day.

Anita: Happily married. Says it like it is. Content most of the time as long as she doesn't forget the Prozac.

Sharon: The not very angelic angel – fell off the back of a moped and died at age 17 (well she couldn't wear a helmet as she'd just had a perm and they drop if you mess around with them too much – don't they?)

A Backstage Critic's Pick!

"It involves the audience deeply and sincerely in a way that the current Broadway cast of Hair in its earnestness, can only envy."
